A Simple Way To Remove Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

Society Lady Tells Secret of Long, Soft, Dark Hair

No trouble, not necessary to visit hair dressing parlor. Do it in the privacy of your home. Simply apply with finger tips or comb into all your hair and scalp "La Creole" Hair Dressing. Can not damage your hair a bit, as "La Creole" Hair Dressing revives the natural color glands. This process naturally changes all your gray, white, faded, prematurely gray or thin dry hair to an even beautiful, dark shade, and makes all your hair soft, long, lustrous, dark without a trace of gray showing. Gray hair is unnecessary. Don't have it, as "La Creole" Hair Dressing can be so easily applied and is so certain to darken all your gray hair. For sale by O'Donovan's, 1212 G Street, N. W., People's Drug Store, and all good drug stores, everywhere. "La Creole" Hair Dressing is sold on a money-back guarantee.

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

Entertainments for Ambassador da Gama—Reception For Italian Veterans Postponed.

MRS. WILLIAM H. BOLLING and Miss Bertha Bolling, who have been guests of the President and Mrs. Wilson for the past ten days, have taken possession of their apartment in the Potomac Hotel. The President and Mrs. Wilson seized their last opportunity to go to the play until the influenza epidemic is checked and attended the performance at the Belasco Theater last evening. Mrs. Bolling, Miss Bolling and John Randolph Bolling were with them.

The Brazilian Ambassador and Mme. da Gama will be the honor guests at a dinner which Brockbridge Long, Third Assistant Secretary of State, and Mrs. Long are giving tomorrow night. The dinner is one of a series of hospitalities which are being arranged before the departure of Mr. da Gama, who is going home shortly to accept the post of Minister of Foreign Affairs. Mme. da Gama returned to town today from New York.

The luncheon which the Secretary of State, Mr. Lansing, will give in honor of Mr. da Gama has been postponed from Monday to Wednesday.

William Phillips, First Assistant Secretary of State, went to New York today to remain over the week-end. Mrs. Phillips and their children, who have been at Hickover, North Beverly, Mass., for the greater part of the summer, are expected back in Washington on Monday or Tuesday.

The marriage of Mrs. Florence Lydia Conde Willis and Clarence P. King, formerly president of the Washington Railway and Electric Company, will be solemnized tomorrow at noon at the bride's home at 1112 H street. The ceremony will be simple, with only members of the immediate families present. The Rev. Dr. Charles Wood, pastor of the Church of the Covenant, will officiate. Mr. King will take his bride to New York, where his business interests are now centered and where they will make their home.

Announcements have been received in Washington of the marriage of Arthur Franklin Musgrave, secretary on the temporary staff of the British embassy, and Miss Helen Greene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millbury Greene, of Cincinnati. The wedding took place in the chapel of St. Thomas' Church, New York, on Wednesday.

Engagement Announced. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hubbard, of Chattertown, Md., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Miriam Warren Hubbard, to Lieut. George Maurice Morris, ordnance department, U. S. A. Lieutenant Morris is at present an instructor in aerial bombing at the Wilbur Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio. He is a graduate of Dartmouth College, holds the degree of doctor of jurisprudence from the University of Chicago, and is a member of several prominent fraternities and clubs.

Miss Hubbard was educated in Washington and Paris and has been a frequent visitor here. She was presented to society at the first Monday german in Baltimore last season. Last year she was a student at the National Service School encampment, holding the rank of second lieutenant.

Dr. Merrill E. Gates, formerly president of Amherst College, and Mrs. Gates have returned to Washington after three months spent in the White Mountains, N. H., and have opened their residence, 1309 Rhode Island avenue.

Miss May Adams and Mrs. D. Buchanan Merriman, who have been in Santa Barbara, Cal., since early summer, are starting home this week. Miss Adams expects to go to White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., for a short visit while her house in New Hampshire avenue is being made ready for the winter.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Edward H. Glenn and the Misses Glenn have returned to town from Monterey, Pa., and are at their New Hampshire avenue home.

The former Ambassador of Russia and Mme. George Bakmeteff, who passed the summer at Bluva Vista Springs, Pa., have returned to Washington and taken possession of the evidence on upper sixteenth street, which they leased on leaving the embassy.

Mrs. Kuhn, wife of Maj. Gen. Joseph E. Kuhn, U. S. A., is visiting Mrs. Jay Cooke at her home in Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia. Mrs. Cooke gave a tea in Kuhn's, which was formerly stationed at Camp Meade, is now in France in command of the Seventy-ninth Division. Lieut. Jay Cooke, Jr., is a member of his staff.

The managers of the Bachelors' Collon, the smartest series of dances given in Baltimore during the season, have decided to cancel the series this year owing to war conditions. The news will cause almost as much regret in Washington as in Baltimore, for there are always many Washington guests at these delightful functions.

Reception Postponed. The reception in honor of the company of Italian veterans in this country to aid in the Liberty loan campaign, which was to have been given on Thursday evening at Memorial Continental Hall and was postponed until Saturday, has been again postponed, and this time indefinitely, at the request of the District Commissioners. They are canceling all public meetings in the hope of checking the spread of influenza.

It is hoped that the Italian soldiers and the Royal Grenadiers Band, which make up Italy's contribution to the Liberty loan drive, may be again entertained in Washington later and that the reception and band concert, which was to have been a feature of the program, may take place at a future date.

The entertainment of these distinguished visitors is in the hands of a committee composed of Cabinet members, of which the Secretary of State is chairman.

Gen. Emilio Guglielmotti, military attaché of the Italian embassy, with the assistant military attaché, Capt. Count Luzzati di Camplione, and Capt. Giuseppe Reviole, head of the Italian bureau of information in this country, went to New York yesterday to meet their countrymen, who are due in Washington tomorrow. Capt. Henry Ayres Uterhart, U. S. A., welcomed the veterans in the name of the Secretary of War.

Mrs. Marcus A. Hanna, who has been at her summer home in Maine, is at the Plaza Hotel, New York, for a brief stay.

Stablers House Hunting. Mrs. Jordan Herbert Stabler will remain at her summer home at York Harbor, Me., until about November 1, when she will join Mr. Stabler in Washington. They have given up the residence, 1814 Jefferson place, which they occupied last winter, and are now house hunting.

Mrs. James W. Wadsworth, Jr., is in New York, where she went to attend a conference at the Biltmore Hotel of the National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, of which she is president.

Mrs. Albert Lincoln Hoffman, who went to Philadelphia for a few days, is now the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Shattuck at their summer home in Lenox, Mass. She is expected back in Washington about October 15 and will be the guest for a time of Senator and Mrs. Peter Goulet Gerry. Lieutenant Hoffman is representing the War Department with the detachment of the French Foreign Legion which is touring the country in the interest of the Liberty loan.

Mrs. Hoffman's mother, Mrs. James Francis Sullivan, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. James R. Clews, on Long Island, will return to her home, The Woods, at Radnor, Pa., next week.

Miss Emilie Cole Weds. Mrs. A. M. Cole announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Emilie A. Cole, to Ensign Frank W. Sogorney, U. S. N. R. The wedding took place on Wednesday at Jersey City. No announcement cards are being sent out.

Mrs. John W. Davis spent yesterday in Baltimore, where a luncheon was given in her honor.

Mrs. George Barnett, wife of the major general commandant of the marine corps, is spending some time at Wakefield Manor, her country place in Rappahannock county, Va., where her daughters, the Misses Gordon, are with her.

Word has been received that Junius Rosenwald, of the Council of National Defense, who contracted pneumonia while in France on a Government mission, and has been at an army base hospital, is convalescing rapidly and has been able to leave the hospital.

Miss L. M. Harrison has returned to Washington, and will be at the Marlborough for the winter.

After a long illness, Mrs. J. H. Bradley has returned to "Bradley Cottage," Chevy Chase, Md.

Returns From Boston. Mrs. Charles Trowbridge Tittmann returned yesterday from Boston, where she was for the launching of the U. S. S. destroyer Crosby, which she christened. The Crosby was named after her father, the late Rear Admiral Percie Crosby.
